ISFP

What are ISFP's like?

ISFPs are active, goal-driven, and creative. ISFPs love exploring and embracing new things, ideas, and activities. They like to experiment and come up with ideas that no one has thought of before, which often makes them trendsetters. ISFPs have a strong affinity for aesthetics and beauty. ISFPs tend to be quiet and reserved, except from those who they are closest to. They are likely to be kind, gentle and sensitive, and interested in contributing to people's sense of well-being and happiness.

The Composer

Introvert

Quiet, reserved, and self-sufficient. Socializing drains their energy. Comfortable being alone. Processes thoughts internally. Needs time alone to recharge.

Sensing

Aware of, and trusting facts, specifics, details, past experience and present realities. Is often observant, realistic and pragmatic. Lives in the here-and-now.

Feeling

Uses personal values, feelings and subjective criteria to make decisions. Ruled by the heart, not the head. Diplomatic, tactful and empathetic. Motivated by appreciation and prefers to avoid arguments and conflicts.

Perceiving

Preferring spontaneity, flexibility and keeping options open. Being adaptable and going with the flow. Playful, less aware of time. Prefers to start projects, questions the need for many rules.

7 Common ISFP Traits

- 1 Loves facts and figures, not theories and ideas
- 2 Dislikes uncertainties in life but can adapt well to change
- 3 Serious and disciplined on the inside, but appears highly spontaneous on the outside
- 4 Loves adventure, craves thrilling activities, and is free-spirited
- 5 Tactful and always considerate of how people feel
- 6 Dislikes restrictions
- 7 Would love to try new experiences and get bored easily with routines
